

COLGATE ROCHESTER CROZER DIVINITY SCHOOL (CRCDS) invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in Black Religious Thought and Life beginning in the 2021-2022 academic year. Interest in one or more of the following is desirable: Critical Race Theory, Womanist and Black Feminist Studies, Homiletics or Rhetoric, or Eco-theology. Preferably, by the time of appointment, successful candidates will hold a Ph.D. or Th.D. Demonstrated excellence or promise of excellence in teaching, scholarship, and administration is essential.

CRCDS is committed to equity in access to employment and a diverse and inclusive workplace. The school encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, LGBTQAI persons, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. All qualified applicants are invited to apply.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a current curriculum vitae, and a list of three references. Please address your experience and vision regarding teaching and program administration in your cover letter. Materials should be submitted electronically to: search@crcds.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately, and preliminary interviews will be conducted beginning in February 2021 via Zoom. To be assured consideration, applications should be submitted by January 25, 2021.

Position Description:

This position includes an administrative role and a faculty appointment. The teaching load is 5 courses per academic year.

Black Religious Thought and Life program duties to include:

- Teaching core courses and electives
- Administrative oversight for program, lectures, and advisory groups
- Identifying affiliate faculty members
- Responsible for program review and revision

BENEFITS: Medical Coverage, Life Insurance, Short-term and Long-term Disabilities coverage, Workers Comp, Pension – TIAA/CREF,

Start date July 1, 2021