

Community Learning P L A T F O R M

~ A Platform with a Purpose ~

At CRCDS, we are building a grassroots platform
... with multi-layered curation ...
*for sharing community knowledge.

This Platform brings together networks of human relationships, curated educational content, and collaborative technology to support leaders who are engaged in transforming communities and society.

Who is joining?

- ✓ Faith Communities and Community Organizations
- ✓ Local and Regional Networks
- ✓ Educational and Not-for-Profit Institutions
- ✓ Socially-Conscious Businesses and Associations
- ✓ Denominations (particularly, Educational and Missional Arms of Denominations)
- ✓ International Networks

Purpose

The purpose of the Community Learning Platform (CLP) is to partner with communities, networks, institutions and movements to:

- engage in spiritual, intellectual, practical, and social formation;
- to gather, craft, curate, and share quality, relevant education;
- expand and deepen relationships through transformative conversations;
- discern the changing face of our callings through life;
- awaken and support one another's unique gifts;
- develop leadership capacity; and
- nurture and refresh each other as we work together to pursue justice and build the Beloved Community.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Community Learning Platform website. The header includes the text "A Project of COLGATE ROCHESTER CROZER Divinity School" and "Purpose | Foundations | CRCDS 101 | First Mondays | Contact Us". Below the header are three featured content boxes: "CRCDS Highlight" featuring President McMickle's book "Be My Witness," "Learning Highlight" for the "Congregational Healthcare Initiative," and "Community Highlight" for "Youth & Children Educators" hosted by Marilyn Thrall and Jen Lessard. The main logo reads "Community Learning PLATFORM" with "Under Construction" and a quote: "like a tree planted by the water... psalm 1". Below the logo are four navigation buttons: "explore", "learn", "teach", and "connect". The footer area includes a news snippet "The Neediest Cases: A Young Mother's Solitary Uphill Struggle New York Times - Front Page", weather information for Rochester, NY (35°F, Mostly Cloudy), and user navigation options like "Rachel's Learning Space | My Account | Sign-Out". A secondary navigation bar contains "Home", "My Library", "My Courses", and "My Communities". A third bar includes "Home", "Help Build the Platform", and "Apply to be a Content Creator".

For more information:

- See an animated CLP introduction at: <https://vimeo.com/newmodels/clpintro>
- Contact Rachel McGuire, Director for New Models, CRCDS at rmcguire@crcds.edu