Statement of Financial Responsibility

I understand that upon registering for classes at Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School, I become financially responsible to pay all charges for tuition and fees. I understand it is my responsibility to know the tuition payment due date and pay my account balance by this date each term.

If I am unable to pay the entire balance of my student account by the tuition payment due date, I must contact the Student Accounts Office and sign a payment plan approved by a Student Accounts Representative. Payment plans must be approved prior to the term's payment due date.

I understand that if I withdraw or drop a class after the 100% tuition refund period and there is a balance due on my student account, this balance must be paid in full upon withdrawal

I understand that a past due balance may be subject to a $25 per month late fee. In addition, a hold may be placed on my account which may prevent online access to my course materials, transcripts or ability to register for future courses. Past due balances are subject to further collection activity including possible placement with a collection agency.

I understand that my student account balance is considered an educational debt and may not be discharged in bankruptcy.

I understand that if I do not pay my student account balance in accordance with the terms above, I may be responsible for all costs of collection including but not limited to late fees and litigation expenses.

I have read and agree to adhere to the terms and conditions of this Statement of Financial Responsibility. I have retained a copy of this document for my records.
